

Asia – Black Sea

CSAV and MSC have entered into a new agreement

Dear Customer,

CSAV Group announces new agreement with MSC to provide service for the Asia -Black Sea trade starting operations during February 2012.

This decision will allow both companies significantly improve system efficiency levels and develop a broad coverage with high degree of reliability, thus attending the growing needs of this trade line.

The agreement will enable us to offer direct call to the Port of Busan and continue serving the main ports in China on the Asian end and Beirut, Piraeus and Istanbul on the East Mediterranean-Black Sea range. A dedicated feeder network will connect to Ports in the East Mediterranean, South of Turkey and main destinations in the Black Sea (Ukraine, Romania, Russia, Georgia).

New port rotation as follows:

Busan – Shanghai – Ningbo – Hong Kong – Chiwan – Singapore WB – Jeddah — Beirut – Piraeus – Istanbul – Piraeus – Jeddah – Salalah – Singapore EB – Qingdao.

Soon after coming slow season, the plan considers the implementation of a direct service between China and the Black Sea, providing direct calls at Ukraine and Romania.

For further information please contact your local CSAV Agency representative.

Sincerely,

CSAV Group

